

LOGIC BLOOMS

TEAM MEMBERS

- 1.Srija.V
- 2.Sheema saba.M
- 3.Swathi.C
- 4.Sri nikitha savula.S
- 5.Shreenithy.RS
- 6.Sreeja sonal.N
- 7.Shruti patil

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to provide a overview of the software requirements for the development of an e-commerce page with three products.

Description

The system will consist of a user interface for product display, a shopping cart functionality, and a checkout process. Users will be able to navigate through the

Requirements

Visitor: Users who access the page without creating an account.

Customer: Users who create an account, add products to their cart, and complete the purchase.

- The system shall display three products on the homepage.
- Each product shall have a title, description, image, and price displayed.
- Users shall be able to click on a product to view detailed information
- Detailed information shall include specifications, reviews, and an option to add the product to the cart.
- Users shall be able to add products to their shopping cart.
- The shopping cart shall display the added products, quantities, and total price.
- Users shall be able to modify the quantity or remove products from the cart.

- Users shall be prompted to provide shipping and payment information during checkout.
- The system shall verify the information provided and process the payment securely.
- Upon successful payment, users shall receive an order confirmation with details.